Little Bit of Love

erse :

The light in your eyes, sublime surprise Reminds me of what I want to say to you, I love you, I love you, like there's no tomorrow

The sight of your smile,

Oh what a smile, it brings me alive

And all I want, is to be with you

To be with you, to be with you, forever oh my love

Chorus

And I send a, little bit of love, a little bit of love a little bit of love your way I send a, little bit of love, a little bit of love a little bit of love your way

Verse 3

Some time ago, we walked together you know And now as I walk alone, you still have me Have all of me, beloved I am yours

Verse 4

This house in the sun, it shines for everyone And when we all sing for you, you come closer, Come closer, oh my love

Bridge

It doesn't matter that I wait here for your loving Or that the dramas that you play, make me feel so helpless Just as long as you get bliss Music and Lyrics

The Sea Rushes to Greet Me (aka Te Henga)

Verse 1

The sea rushes to greet me
Bubbling joy like a long lost love
Waves are perfect, straight and curvy
Chasing me to the sandy shore
How I long to throw my body
Into the whispery spray
But for now I run laughing
From the cold, away

Verse 2

I draw figures, in the black sand
Water comes and washes without shame
But tomorrow, yes tomorrow
With bare feet I shall come again
Caressing seas beauty over me
Breathing deep sea air

Watching sun dive in crimson fantasy, that only lovers share

Longing for the day of no more waiting No more painful delay When I jump into the ocean, and only you remain

Aotearoa

For Isabel

Verse 1

The sun shines on the rooftops
Not a cloud is in the sky
The light of Aotearoa, is burning my eyes
And so I call my darling, to hear her voice sweet and kind
And though she's far away from here
I feel her close as, by my side

Chorus

And I have wandered, oh so far to where, my spirit flies

Verse 2

My dad he was a sailor, when he swept mum off her feet And so we came together to the land where loved ones meet My brother he was golden, till the river took his life And I return now to this land, to where my blood line lies

Chorus

And I have wondered oh so far, to where my spirit flies

Verse 3

My mum she was devoted, her voice, a guiding star, My grandma read a library, her mind extended far My grandpy was a song man, he played harmonica We'd sit and sing together those old familiar lines

Chori

And I have wondered oh so far to where my spirit flies

Verse 4

From Gondwana to the red soil, of Rarh in India The Dom trail to France, New forest, and Ireland we travelled far, In time we Iaid our hearts, deep within this earth where Maui raised, with his greenstone hook, and Aotearoa took birth

Chorus

And I have wondered oh so far to where my spirit flies

So don't wait until tomorrow to say that 'I love you' Tomorrow may come never, do what you feel is true And so my little daughter, who in my heart abides Will learn to spread her wings so wide,

to fly in love so high

Chorus

And I have wondered oh so far to where my spirit flies

Crying for you:

Verse

Crying for you on black sand dunes The girl who walks without her shoes Crying for you along rivers tears With plump seagulls plucking airs Those sweet hellos and silent stares And children running full of cheer Crying for you in misty spray And waves that beckon 'Oh Please stay'

Chorus

And I feel it and I feel it will be alright

Verse

Crying for you in caves so deep and cliffs that echo gentle feet Crying for you in the dark abyss where lovers stroll to steal a kiss With all that's said and all that's sung there's just some things that can't be undone Crying for you with reddened eyes and melodies ringing deep inside

Chorus

And I feel it and I feel it will be alright

Bridge I

I have faith in you, yeah faith I do The words you say, I know they're true In my heart of heart there's only you And I say them over and over

Chorus

And I feel it and I feel it will be alright

Verse 3

These golden sunsets and orange moons
The scent of your sweet perfume
The flowers I gave, you spun around and round
While inside me turned upside down
And when you came down from the stairs
That sad farewell was left unsaid

The flames that burnt but not your being The mystery of you remains unseen

Bridge 2

And I can't even imagine how you feel I'm just a tiny speck of love in infinity But there's thing I know, I know, that's real

Chorus

That I want you and I want you to be alright That I want you and I want it to be alright

You Will Never Be Alone My Love

Verse

You will never be alone my love
I'll always be there
I'll stay, I'll stay with you always
Till the end of time

Chorus

For as long as I am here I'll be right by you side For as long as I am dear to you You'll be satisfied, you'll be satisfied

Verse 2

High heavens, heavens or hell below You'll never see me hide Through thunder bolts and lightning strikes There'll be no goodbyes Chorus

For as long as I exist, You'll never be alone

Through darkest nights, through thick and thin I'll be there heart and soul

Bridge

In sadness I will wipe the tears from your eyes In shadow, I will never let it touch your side In sorrow, I will hold, hold, hold you tight lovelorn, we will dance all through the night My Love and I, Ah...

Animals are our Friends

Verse 1

When your heads going 'round and 'round They teach us to slow down When there's pain in the air, they teach us how to care And they want to be loved, and they want to stay alive And they take no more than they need to survive

Verse 2

We all have the right to love and to live
Have you ever seen an animal its life, willingly give?
Yet you take anyway and you think its ok
But have you looked into their eyes
The moment you betray?

Chorus

Cos animals are our friends They trust in us till the end Where would we be without them (x2) We all make mistakes
But we can change if we face it
Don't let it bring you down
There's a better way to a brighter day

Verse 3

People say we're at the top of the food chain So we can eat whatever we want, this is their claim So if aliens came here, they could eat us too? What kind of logic is this, I wouldn't want to be you.

Verse 4

When there's not enough resources for human greed Animals teach us, take just what you need And if you think you can't get by on plant based foods Just look at our elephants, giraffes, so strong and beautiful

Chorus

Cos animals are our friends They trust in us till the end Where would we be without them (x2)

Bridge

We all make mistakes But we can change if we face it Don't let it bring you down PROUT will guide the way to a brighter day

Outro

I offer myself, all of my wealth for your happiness Nothings too great or small, I give my all for your bliss.

A Friend is One (aka Tinku)

Dedicated to the late Sanjay Kumar Mahato

Verse

A friend is one who holds your hand
When you're on your knees
A friend is one who understands, when you cannot speak
A friend is one who sings you songs of the ancient past who rides with you on moonlit nights along the red earth paths

Chorus

And I follow him, and he follows me too He lit a light in my life, and I won't let it go out

Verse 2

A friend is one who takes you home when you're all alone
A friend is one who knows your worth especially when you doubt
A friend is one who sings your praise sometimes way too loud
A friend is one who holds your hand when you're on the ground.

Verse 3

A friend is one who tells the truth even if it hurts A friend is one who feels your need and never deserts A friend is one who stays with you and your broken heart He plays with you and then knows how to make you laugh.

Choru

Verse 4

A friend is one who talks with you, long into the night
He fights with you, he cries with you
And still will hold you tight he doesn't know, but he trusts, because you are his light
And when you are together, everything feels right.

Chorus

Bridge

I feel you like the waves on a big ship Lashing on a brown hull deep in the ocean As we look for the lighthouse Where we can both go Open, open like raindrops splashing on the surface of the deep sea

To show you the beauty, that I see within you Say it won't you say it, so I can hear you Hear what hurts you, deep in the darkness
Show me your secret

Verse 1

The strength of your heart as I'm tearing apart I just cannot express, no I cannot express Your generosity embraces all of me But I cannot express, no I cannot express

O traveler, You came all alone at the end of the night when the jasmine flowers fell.

Seeing my door closed, You stood by the wayside. My eyes were half closed in sleep, some things I could see, and some things I could not.

Then, You went away at dawn, wet with mist at the end of night, floating in the infinite void.

The jasmine creeper at my door still carries the message of Your arrival. Removing its drops of dew, it remains awake, ever waiting for You.

If at that time I had opened my doo and whispered a word in Your ear, on that autumn midnight, I would have floated aloft and minded myself in Your moled of

Special Thanks

With many thanks to: Michael Lloyd, Brian Masterton, Martin O'Malley, Brendan Treacy for their expertise, imaginative mixing, masterful mastering and generosity.

And to all the wonderful musicians who played on this album, you are brilliant and I loved playing with you.

With love and gratitude as always to my loving family and friends for your love, inspiration and support in so many kind and generous ways, who are as significant to me as the above. I want to put your names but I will undoubtedly forget someone and that would be sad, so better just to say thanks from the bottom of my heart (and you know who you are).

I am forever grateful to you all.

Finally, with deepest reverence and gratitude to my beloved guru, Shrii Shrii Anandamurtiji, love of my life, life of my own, song of my song.
